MOOREFIELD STORY PROVES OF BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Repiles By Telling Colored People To Stand Fast To Persevere, Fight For Their Rights And They Cannot Fail.

THE LARGER THE FORCE THE SOONER SUCCESS

NEW YORK, March 20.—Moorefield Story, of Boston, former President of the American Bar Association, and now President of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has addressed a message to members of the Association throughout the United States, expressing his thanks for congratulations received on his 60th birthday and urging all efforts to stand fast and persevere for racial justice and betterment.

"During my life I have seen several abolished the world over," writes Mr. Story, "I have seen serfdom abolished in Russia, I have seen the emperors of France, Turkey, Russia, Austria and Germany swept from their thrones, and their places taken by the representatives of free peoples. Bearing these facts in mind, I want you to realize that the tide of freedom is rising the world over, and that its progress is irresistible."

Mr. Story's letter in full is as follows:

"To the Various Branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People,
My Friends:

"I have received from branches of this Association from all over the country the most cordial congratulations on my sixtieth birthday, and most gratifying assurance of their regard for me personally. I like this means of thinking one and all for these men-tional and personal expressions of sympathy and good cheer and perseverance in their efforts."

"The souls that are brought in the courts against those who violate the rights of the colored people in this country are more numerous than the stars in the sky, and every judgment in their favor is a precedent which discourages attacks, but it is not enough to have the law on our side. It is not safe to let a colored man or woman, that is dangerous to the system, that is the danger of this country are determined to assert their rights under the constitution and laws, and the progress of the race will be made faster."

THREE DAYS ONLY

"The Dark Swan"

From The Novel By Ernest Pascal
—With—
Marie Prevost, Monte Blue, Helene Chadwick

Had she the right to steal her sister's husband? A story of two sisters—one an entrancing vision of love. Her, the other a dark swan. Had she given her a plain face—that was the trouble. Of the romance that came to a queen of ugliness. Another striking example of the quotation: "Fidelity thy name is woman." But of love's beating heart she picked the mystery. She beat her wings against fate—and won.

WHY THE COLORED VOTER CAN NOT SUPPORT MILLER

TAKING NO CHANCES WITH THE KU KLUX KLAN WHICH HE HAS NEVER DENOUNCED

Although He Declares He Is Not A Member, He Has At No Time Said A Single Word That Can Be Construed As A Denunciation Of The Hooded Band.—His Record Is Not Constructive.

We find it necessary to oppose Victor Miller in his candidacy for Mayor, and endorse William L. Igoe, his opponent. It has been seldom in the history of the colored people that we have found it necessary to proclaim our support of a candidate not affiliated with the Republican party, a party whose principles we have espoused and whose tenets we have cherished since the days of the immortal Lincoln. But there are times when our greater devotion to the cause of the race, its progress and advancement, make this course necessary.

Victor Miller is the so-called Republican nominee for Mayor and in our opinion he lacks that sincerity of purpose and action that finds expression in the principles of Republicanism. Ever since the birth of the Republican party its history has been nobly characterized by a faithful adherence to the doctrine of race and religious freedom, a doctrine upon which our future as a nation must stand, a doctrine which American forefathers wrote in blood, a doctrine which must not be trifled with in any phase of public service.

Mr. Miller's associates are not to our liking. His expressions on the subject of religious and race freedom are not clear and concise. In this day and age we are taking no chances with the Ku Klux Klan and yet in all our surveys of Mr. Miller's activities and our conscientious study of his expressions and statements we find nothing either in his actions or his sentiments to warrant our faith in his opposition to the hooded band.

It is true he denies membership in the Klan. In a rather pompous manner he offers $5,000 for proof of his membership in the organization of sheets and pillows. And yet what has he said of the Klan? Nothing. Has he denounced bigotry or intolerance? Has he flayed the national fight against race and religious freedom? Has he indicted the Klan for its un-American doctrines or inveighed against it for its usurpation of the functions of government?

No. He has come among our people and told them of his friendliness with our race. He has said that no discrimination should be made against us. He points out that he elevated men of our race to positions on the police force. But nowhere does he denounce the Klan nowhere does he denounce its leaders, nowhere does he speak of bigotry or intolerance. It is a weak defense of his position merely to state he is not a member of the Klan. We don't know that he has been charged even with being one. But we do know that he has been introduced at public gatherings by men of known relationship with the Klan. We know that the Klan is active in his support at least through individuals known to be associated with it. And we know further that Mr. Miller has accepted this support, does not seem opposed to it and has on no occasion said the slightest thing to alienate this questionable backing.

If this is Republicanism, then we have been misled. But it is not. Our great National platforms and our great State platform frankly denounced intolerance and the Klan. Our Governor denounced it and our present Mayor denounced it. But Mr. Miller has been silent and his expression lack sincerity. We cannot promote indifference to this issue by endorsing his candidacy. He has been wanting in his frankness and his clarity. His attitude has been one of wavering and evasion, platitudes and catch-penny verbal devices.

It will not do. The colored voter has his race at heart; race and religious freedom mean much to us. Evasion on the part of public servants will not satisfy our people.

Mr. Miller has had his chance to be clear, concise and to the point. He missed it.

And having been weak in his own expressions we shall be strong in ours.

Mr. Miller must be defeated. He cannot be entrusted to deal with the Colored Voter with that fine, American, patriotic fairness that characterizes his opponent.

Our support should be thrown to Mr. Igoe in this fight if we are sincere in our interest in our own behalf.

We asked nothing of Mr. Miller but a denunciation of our national enemies. We did not get it, nor will we.

We are still Republicans in every fibre of our being and in every principle that goes to make up real American citizenship, but we can remain Republicans still even though our ballots be cast against one whose principles we believe to be against those of our party in the matter of bigotry and intolerance and race hatred.

Mr. Miller has not merited the support of the Colored Voter. The Colored Voter, interested in his home and his city should not forget.

EDITORIALS FROM THE ST. LOUIS ARGUS, MARCH 21.

WARNING AGAINST NEGRO LEADERSHIP

It seems that the Hon. Victor J. Miller, the Republican nominee for mayor, has addressed before Negro audiences, made the biggest portion of his time in warning his hearers against Negro leadership. He takes the pains to point out a few and proclaim them "dangerous leaders" because they differ with him in the matter as to who should be mayor of the city. He has gone so far as to threaten all the Negroes by saying, "they are hurting your race and will cause the colored to suffer." Of course he thinks that it will scare the colored people, and, of course, if they through fear of some horrible violation upon them, vote for Mr. Miller, it will tickle him up his sleeves.

The truth of the matter is, we believe Mr. Miller has little or no faith in Negro leadership. One thing we note, that since he is the party's nominee, he doesn't seem to want any Negro as leader of the Negro voters to help him to victory. All the aspirants in leadership have been turned down "cold turkey" and a white man has been put in charge to control the Negro voters for Miller. This is one of those little things that count big and have a deep meaning to the fellow who thinks. It may be that a little study of this condition will reveal just why Mr. Miller regards Negro leadership as "dangerous." We, therefore, warn those who take with itching ears to his denunciation of race leaders, that the

How To Vote For Igoe

Colored voters should instruct their friends how to vote for Igoe. To vote for the Republican Ticket put an "X" in the circle just beneath the Elephant.

THEN

PUT AN "X" IN THE CIRCLE IN FRONT OF IGOE'S NAME.

Don't Forget—Two Circles—Two "X" Marks.

One "X" in front of Igoe's Name—One "X" in the circle just below the Elephant.

Theo you have voted the Republican Ticket, but you have also voted for your friend,

WILLIAM L. IGOE.

Fix Your Ballot Like This

WILLIAM L. IGOE, CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR DEMOCRATIC TICKET

same thing, no doubt, would be said of you if you dared to lead your people contrary to his wishes.

As to the editor of the Argus, we have no fear as to the mistake we are making in this matter. We have the satisfaction of a clear conscience in having pursued the course we thought best for the people. We are willing to let the people be the judge as to our sincerity.

COME LET US REASON TOGETHER

We have said before, and we repeat, that we have no quarrel with the colored people of the city about who is or who is not elected mayor of the city on April 7th. If there are those who want to vote for Mr. Miller, we grant that they have as much right to be sincere as those who are supporting Mr. Igoe. So, if we are honest, ourselves, we should remember that there others who are just as honest as we. There is no need of "fussing and fighting over the office as we see it."

We do not see why it is necessary to abuse anyone just because he differs with us in politics. It is quite natural that all do not see things alike, neither should it be expected of us to agree in politics.

Come let us reason together in times like these. We should like to know, from those who have given the matter serious thought, is it best for us, as a group, in a city like St. Louis, to vote the one party ticket regardless of the circumstances? Do we concede our vote to any party just because we are colored? Do we realize that there is no bid for the vote that is already in a fellow's pocket? These are some of the things about which we should think.

In times like these, we as a group, should have friends in all parties, more especially the two major parties. Let us not be frightened by threats or intimidation, but think—think for ourselves, and do not be moved by mere sentiment, because the mill cannot grind with the water that has passed. It is not what we used to be, but rather what we are today. If we are to improve our present status, it must be done by thought.

Will Not Vote For Miller

To the Editor of the Argus:

I have been a life-long Republican and cast my first vote for Benjamin Harrison in 1888. After hearing so much of the Klan campaign of Mr. Miller, I cannot cast my vote for him, so I wish my friends to understand my position in this matter. I shall vote for Mr. Igoe for mayor.

Very respectfully,
Alex. J. Rasmussen,
1941 Locust St.
(Resident of the 4th Ward)

RECORD OF IGOE THROUGH CONGRESS AND IN HOUSE OF DELEGATES EXCELLENT

He Has Never Engaged In Useless Promises Or Empty Pledges, But Those Of Our Race Who Know Him And Have Watched His Efforts To Public Service, Know He Is A Friend Of Our Race And People.

In William L. Igoe, opponent of Victor Miller for Mayor of St. Louis, Colored Voters can readily find those sterling qualities of statesmanship which lend themselves to the creation of popular favor.

Here is a native St. Louisian, the son of parents of modest means, left to shift for himself at an early age and forced to face a problem of self control and self direction in tender years.

He was born in North St. Louis; he has never enjoyed easy affluence, he has worked his way to prominence and public favor by sheer ability and stick-to-itiveness. From his earliest years when as a clerk at the Mercantile Library, he found time to educate himself, from the years of his public school life when his attentiveness was a matter of school gossip, on through his later years at Washington University where he studied law, he has been one of steady work, calm purpose, noble ambition and service to others.

It was as a member of the House of Delegates that Mr. Igoe first became a city-wide figure. Those days were notable in our city's history and the news reporters were actively on the watch for lapses from honesty on the part of the city legislator. He passed through four years of service in the House of Delegates and during that period not a word appeared in the public press and not a rumor spread in connection with his name except in praise of his activities on behalf of city progress. He made a notable record in devotion to public duty by constant attendance and attention and left a monument to his civic work in the foundation he helped to lay for the Board of Children's Guardians.

Then came Congress. Much against his will he was practically drafted for national service. During his three terms there his record is without a blemish. Standing always fearlessly against the invasion of Constitutional rights and guarantees, his vote is in all instances typical of his clear understanding of the rights of man, whether his creed be of one or the other of the many creeds or his color one of the several.

Throughout his Congressional career he served his Colored voters of his district with the same attention and care as he did his white adherents. And in public on all occasions he has denounced bigotry, intolerance and the evasion of personal liberties.

Mr. Igoe; we are frank to say, has himself felt the sting of those unkind shafts that are felt by men of certain creeds and races. This in itself would be sufficient to guarantee to us his antipathy to the proscribing methods of the Ku Klux Klan. But it is not all. He has not felt the stings in vain; He has publicly denounced them and fearlessly and forcibly inveighed against them. He has denounced the Klan and its works. He has demanded for every man the right to worship as he pleases or to enjoy whatever preferment his capabilities merit whether he be black or white or yellow, or whether he be Protestant, Catholic, Gentile or Jew.

Throughout the war and through the days of reconstruction Mr. Igoe's record is an open book. We have watched his work and his ways. He has refused engaging alliances or pre-election pledges. His friends come from all parties and from all creeds. His honesty is a household word and his frank and open discussion of Municipal needs and Municipal affairs stamps him as a statesman eminently fitted and qualified to take up the burden of Mayor of this great city.

Colored Voters, in Igoe we have a friend who will not engage in empty promises and yet hide under the cloak of "washed words" and evasions. We know this man. We can find him and his friends always in the open. There are no pillow slips or sheets used by him or around him. All men to him are men and all principles are principles—not merely phrases.

Nothing in the life or action of this man, nothing in his associations or his expressions of public concern can be found that in any way reflects upon him. On the contrary his life of public service and public achievement eminently fits him for the place his friends seek for him.
